Street Parking Task Force

Other Committees: Neighborhood Welcome, Road Signs and Neighborhood Directory Committees

Comments:

- Parking: the existing Parking Ordinance is sufficient for current issues. As the ordinance is enacted and enforced we will review to determine if changes need to be made. Messaging will be reshared with the residents through current communication channels: mailboxes, email, website, Facebook page, and signage to remind the City about the Parking Ordinance.

Good Neighbor Task Force

Other Committees: Neighborhood Activities, Communications and Neighborhood Online Channels Committees (website, social channels)

Comments:

- Easter Egg Hunt is Saturday, April 13
- Introduction and presentation with Boxcar PR to discuss set-up services to clean up communication channels for the City residents: website, email templates for newsletters, Facebook, text alerts, content management system, Nextdoor, online directory. The current state of each of these are disconnected and some of the coding is no longer supported. The objective is to create a more integrated system that is user-friendly and engaging for the neighborhood to interact.

Comments:

- Speeding Task Force:
  - Contacted Chief Thornberry to discuss ideas to reduce speed.
  - Additional stop signs are an option. Stop signs can be placed at an intersection only.
  - Will be making a call to JCPS to notify bus drivers to slow down.
  - Also learned the Chief did not have the Parking Ordinance in place for enforcement yet.
- Neighborhood Watch Program: will be contacting an advocate in District 7 to learn how to get started.
  - (Mayor) Moving forward, let’s create some branded signage to promote.

- v.    Commissioner’s report – Commissioner Krish
      Short Term/Temporary Rental Policies Task Force
      Other Committees: Ordinance Review Committee

Comments:

- The City Council says the City of Crossgate is not large enough to facilitate re-zoning. That means we can regulate short-term rentals through penalties, fines, and restriction of days. The current known rental appears to be inactive at this time.
